IRISH CULTURE AND ARTS PROGRAMME FOR HONG KONG SCHOOLS

01

PROGRAMME DETAILS

CEinnoculture is an Irish-based education company committed to promoting Irish cultural understanding through education. We have been working with local government agencies in Ireland and China to introduce these programmes into Chinese primary and secondary schools.

AIM OF THE PROGRAMME

The aim of this programme is to develop a better cultural understanding of Ireland through Irish cultural, artistic and sporting activities to be delivered in primary and secondary schools in Hong Kong.

PROGRAMME DURATION & MODE OF DELIVERY

Depending on the school's requirements, the programme can be delivered with different lengths ranging from a half-day programme, a day-long programme right up to a longer camp.

The programme will be delivered face-to-face with our teachers delivering the programme.

An introduction to Ireland and Cork

We will introduce Hong Kong students to Ireland and especially the city of Cork. Learn all about Ireland: Irish geography, history, language and society.

Irish Sport-Gaelic Football

We will show students a video of Gaelic Football and Hurling to introduce students to Ireland's national sports. Students will then be shown some of the skills of Gaelic football: the kick, the handpass and the catch. and play Gaelic football games together.

Irish Songs-Molly Malone

We will teach the students Irish ballads including Molly Malone. They will listen to Irish songs and fill in some missing words. The song will then be explained to the students. Students will then have the chance to sing the song together.

Irish Traditional Dance

Through video, students will be able to identify some Irish traditional instruments. They will then be able to watch a video of traditional Irish dancing. Following this, they will be taught some traditional Irish dancing steps and then in groups, they will dance together.

W. B. Yeats
Selected Poems

Irish Literature

Students will be introduced to famous Irish writers such as W.B. Yeats and Oscar Wilde. By reading extracts from their work, Hong Kong students will come to a better understanding of Irish literature.

Irish Myths & Legends

Ireland is famous for its literature, myths and legends. For example, we will tell the story of The Children of Lir to the students and the students will do some activities related to this story.
